

The long, dull, monotonous years of middle-aged prosperity or middle-aged adversity are excellent campaigning weather for the devil.

C. S. Lewis

Q. 77 Where has Christ promised that He will nourish and refresh believers with His body and blood as surely as they eat of this broken bread and drink of this cup?

A. In the institution of the Lord's supper: The Lord Jesus on the night when He was betrayed took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.[1] This promise is repeated by Paul where he says: The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.[2]

Opening Prayer

Old Testament Reading: Daniel 7:13-14

Hymn #283 Sweet Hour of Prayer

Psalms 37:12-17

(12) The wicked plots against the just, and gnashes on him with his teeth.

(13) Jehovah laughs at him; for He sees that his day is coming.

(14) The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, to kill those who walk uprightly. (15) Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

(16) A little to the righteous is better than the riches of many wicked.

(17) For the arms of the wicked shall be broken; but Jehovah upholds the righteous.

Congregational Prayer / Lord's Prayer

Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who have sinned against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.

Amen.
